<<It was a wonderful experience in Cnam, our professors are highly responsible, most of the knowledge are very practical during my past working experience. Especially project management, business plan, feasibility study. In addition, the international environment might expand our network, no matter the team work in the class, but also the way of thinking in different cultures. The life in Paris: I have to say enjoy every moment in Paris, just like the writer Ernest Miller Hemingway said: 'If you are fortunate enough to have lived in Paris as a young man, then wherever you go for the rest of your life, it stays with you, for Paris is a moveable feast'.>>
